Eight Guiding Principles of Ministry

We don't need to be religious to help people, just live holy

We will not be discouraged by the insensitivity of others

We will not let our busy schedules steal our opportunity to serve

We will serve others without judgement

We will serve with hands of compassion not duty

We will provide high quality ministry

We will ring people to a place where they can receive needed help

We will financially invest in the work of God

WE WANT YOU!

SUCCESS

To MY AWESOME Seed of Faith Int'l Family

I thank each of you for your contribution towards Vacation Bible School. We certainly had challenges and adventures. By the grace of God, your prayers, physical, and financial support, we had another FANTASTIC year! One of the students, a guest, accepted Jesus Christ into their heart. Your support contributed to this addition to the kingdom of God. HALLELUJAH!!!

Each night, we were able to provide the students with a meal before VBS, a snack during VBS, and send them away with a backpack with school supplies, at the celebration closing out VBS.

This could not have been done without your support.

It is my prayer that God continues to bless you above all you can ask, think, or even imagine!

Reaching the workplace as a Foursquare marketplace chaplain

Sharon L. Pyant, a marketplace chaplain with Foursquare Chaplains International, ministers in the workplace, helping employees navigate personal issues and, when they're open, introducing them to Jesus.

“Helping people to put life in perspective is really meaningful. That’s why I do what I do, because people are hurting, and when they are, you just need to be there to help them know that God is with them.”
